

RULES OF STAYING WITH DOG IN PALAC TŁOKINIA

1. Staying with dog in our facility requires the approval of the Reception Manager, which takes place at stage of booking a stay. Dogs are allowed only in designated rooms.
2. Pałac Tłokinia accepts stay with dog. If arriving with dog, it is necessary to inform facility in advance (to the following email adress biuro@palac-tlokinia.pl) about size and the dog's breed. If the guest does not inform the facility about arriving with dog, Pałac Tłokinia has a right to refuse the accomodation
3. Pałac Tłokinia does not accept pets other than dogs.
4. Our facility accepts only health dogs with health records (up-to-date vaccinations and deworming). If they are not available, you can contact a vet in Kalisz. The facility has right to refuse the animal's stay without health records, those who are sick, those during the convalescence or those on diet.
5. The dog's owner declares that the animal is health and does not pose a threat to other animals or people.
6. The dog's owner is obligated to have his own dog's bed.
7. All damage caused by the dog , to the property of facility or other guests, as well as dirts requiring additional work will be assessed individually and the costs will be charged to the owners e.g for dirty or damaged bedding.
8. It is unacceptable to use hotel towels and bed linen for the dog's needs, keeping the dog on the bed or sofas and letting do dog's needs in the room.
9. If leaving your dog alone in the room , please leave the tag on the door handle on the outside of the room- PET IN ROOM.
10. For safety reasons rooms with the presence of dogs are cleaned only in the presence of the owners or when dog is not in the room.
11. Dog's owners are responsible for complying with the regulations regarding keeping quiet at night and not disturbing other guests.
12. If found the a left in the room dog is disturbing the stay of other guests, destroying a hotel property or may cause a threat to itself or others , the facility Manager will immediately contact with the owners to solve the problem. If contact with the owners is impossible , Pałac Tłokinia has a right to enter the room, if required with help of appropriate services, and take dog to the nearest animal shelter. All costs resulting from the above activites are covered by the dog's owner.
13. In public areas, the owner is obligated to keep the dog on the leash and with the muzzle.
14. It is forbidden to bring dogs into the restaurant and halls where meals are served.
15. The owner is obliged to always clean up the excrement left by his dog (excrement bags are available at the reception).
16. Cost of a dog's stay is 100 PLN/ stay

When checking- in, the owner declares that he/she has read the regulations regarding staying with a dog at the Pałac Tłokinia and accepts its provisions.